

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
BEAUMONT DIVISION

HECTOR PACHECO-MORALES	§
VS.	§	CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:21-CV-312
BRYAN COLLIER, et al. ,	§

MEMORANDUM OPINION REGARDING VENUE

Plaintiff, Hector Pacheco-Morales, an inmate currently incarcerated at the LeBlanc Unit with the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Correctional Institutions Division, proceeding pro se, filed this civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against defendants Bryan Collier, Executive Director, Don Boscoe, Director, Isaac Kwarteng, Medical Director, Lannett Linthicorn, Director, and Tanya Lawson, Administration Manager.

The above-styled action was referred to the undersigned Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636 and the Local Rules for the Assignment of Duties to the United States Magistrate Judge for findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendations for the disposition of the case.

Discussion

Venue in a civil rights action is determined pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). When, as in this case, jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity of citizenship, 28 U.S.C. § 1391 provides that venue is proper only in the judicial district where all the defendants reside or in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred.

Plaintiff's complaint pertains to his medical treatment while incarcerated at the McConnell Unit. The McConnell Unit is located in the Southern District of Texas, Corpus Christi Division.

It is clear that all of the events or omissions giving rise to his claims occurred in the Southern District of Texas, Corpus Christi Division. Venue, therefore, is not proper in the Eastern District of Texas, Beaumont Division.

When venue is not proper, the court “shall dismiss, or if it be in the interest of justice, transfer such case to any district or division in which it could have been brought.” 28 U.S.C. 1406(a). Plaintiff’s claims should be transferred to the Southern District of Texas, Corpus Christi Division. An appropriate order so providing will be entered by the undersigned.
